SPRING CAPES.

Our stock is now complete in this department, and we wish you to call and see what we are showing and selling in Cloth, Silk and Velvet Capes at $5.00, $6.50, $9.00 and $12.00. The Velvet Cape has the lead. Ask to see our $5.00 number.

Separate Skirts.

We have them and are selling them freely. They are sellers because of their remarkable low price. Think of buying a nice black Skirt, lined throughout, for $1.98; a better one for $3.49, a real good one for $5.00, and something handsome from $5.00 to $10.00. That is the secret of their great popularity, and why we are selling so many.

Ladies' Wrappers.

Since we opened this department, Feb. 1st, we have received many compliments on the styles and general make-up of the goods, and especially on the prevailing low prices. At 98c up to $2.50 we can supply you with anything in this line.

Shirt Waists.

This is a line of goods that deserves, and a little later on will get this entire space, in which to sing forth their praises. We simply want to say here that already the boom is on and now is your time to pick up choice numbers. Prices from 50c to $1.50. New things arriving daily.

WITNESSES TESTIMONY

The Very Best Meeting of All the Series.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF JESUS

A Cloud of Witnesses Testify That the Religion of the Savior Pays, In Time and in Eternity—Deep Interest Manifested by Men and Women Who Ask For Prayers.

Rev. R. B. Whitehead lead the choir last night, and song service was delightful. Reverend Huffer and the pastor of the A. M. E. church led in prayer, and again gospel songs made melody.

Saturday next, in the rink, at 3 o'clock, children's meeting, and the boys and girls will be addressed by Evangelist Schiverea, while Weeden will render sweet song service. No children will be admitted to the service on Sunday night next, nor on Tuesday night next. Mothers can bring their children on Saturday afternoon next, at the 3 o'clock meeting.

The youngsters, boys and girls, some of them calling themselves young men and young women, have been misbehaving sadly in the galleries of late, and the matter being reported to the evangelist, a bar was placed on their going to the gallery last night, and they indignantly refused to enter the lower portion and went elsewhere. This action of the evangelist and those in charge is to be highly commended.

The evangelist spoke last night of the awful wrong of permitting young girls, from 12 to 15 years of age, to wander around the streets of the city until 9, 10 and 11 o'clock, as they oftentimes thus fall a victim to the unprincipled scoundrels who are watching for just such opportunities for the commission of unmentionable crimes.

"Matthew 22d and 42d. 'What think you of Christ?' This is a personal question to each and everyone of us. We have certainly formed some opinion of the blessed Jesus. Some are saying, by their actions, that they think merely enough of God to take his name in vain, to use his name with an awful oath. Yes, men, there are thousands of sinners, all around and about us, who will take the name of God and of Jesus in vain upon the slightest provocation or excuse. Some of the young women who come to this rink act as if they were possessed of the very devil. Some of them have had the audacity to attempt to flirt with Mr. Weeden, from the galleries, even when I was in the very midst of my appeals to sinners. If there is anything on earth I despise, it is a miserable flirt, as they are straight on the road to the devil. I can imagine nothing more contemptible than a female flirt, plying her trade with a half-witted young man, willing to engage in the same debasing occupation. I suppose some of the girls engaged in this nasty business call themselves ladies. The comparison is an absolute insult to a real, genuine, true, living, realistic lady.

"What do you think of Jesus? Men of East Liverpool, let me tell you what the very men who put the blessed Christ to death, thought of him. They were forced, despite themselves, to say: 'Truly he was the Son of God!' I ask Herod, Pilate and Agrippa, three mighty men of earth, 'What do you think of Jesus?' They are compelled to answer: 'We find no fault in this man.' Infidels, from Voltaire down, say: 'He was the very best moral man that ever lived.' Rob Ingersoll don't dare say anything worse. I ask the devils in hell: 'What do you think of Jesus?' They cry out: 'Hast thou come to torment us before our time, thou Son of God?' Isn't it passing strange, men, that so many poor sinners will admit that Jesus is the Son of the living God, himself all merciful, and yet refuse to accept him and take him into our lives?

"Think of the great audience which has gone from earth to heaven; mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, husbands, wives, children, relatives, friends and acquaintances—a great host of witnesses. I ask them: 'What do you think of Jesus?' The reply comes back to me: 'The blessed, blessed Jesus was our best friend while on earth, and he has placed us upon his right hand in heaven. Glory be to his blessed name!' I see four of my loved ones there, and I say to them: 'What do you think of Jesus?' The reply comes back to my heart: 'Oh, son and father, he is the bright and morning star—the one altogether lovely. We are waiting for you to come and see him in all his glory!' Oh, sinners here tonight, what do you think of Jesus? Has Jesus any witnesses here?

"A saloonkeeper met a man who has been saved from the power of rum in this city. The man saved by grace has been working for some time past, and he had purchased a new suit with his savings. The whisky dealer and drunkard maker said to him: 'Why you're togged out nicely; where did you make the raise? Where did you reach your good clothes?' The redeemed man replied: 'I've been working for the past seven days, saved my money and fixed up a little decently.' 'Yes,' said the selfish, miserable saloonkeeper, angry because his victim had escaped his clutches, 'if you'd pay me that dollar you owe me, I might get some new clothes myself.'

"A business man of East Liverpool said: 'I wish Schiverea would leave the city, as he is blocking business.' God help that man—he's not fit to be in business. Great good has been accomplished in these meetings, thank God, and many hearts have been made happy among the working men and working women, as well as in other avenues of business life.

"Your clubs are an awful curse to East Liverpool, as they keep many young men away from Jesus. God help a city full of club rooms. Your saloons are awful, but I believe in my soul that your club rooms are even a greater curse than are your saloons. I love the young men who assemble in the club rooms. I love their precious, immortal souls, and would to God I could get them to accept Jesus as their best friend and guide through life. I love the saloon keepers' souls; but, as for their business, I wish it was in hell, where it belongs.

"I have had splendid treatment in East Liverpool. I love your hustling, busy city, with the industries furnishing employment to so many men and women. Oh, I wish, men and women of this busy city, that you would treat Jesus as well as you do me. May the God of all mercies bless and keep and save you."

The evangelist then asked for witnesses for Jesus, repeating his call of 'What do you think of Jesus?' And then a great cloud of witnesses arose and testified to the power and mercy and love of the blessed Christ, he who had died for them and saved them in time and in eternity. One man testified that he had been a drinker for 30 years, and that, some four years ago, he had accepted Christ, and the curse had been taken away from and out of his life. Schiverea cried out: 'Without the Keeley cure, without the Keeley cure?' When answered in the affirmative, the evangelist shouted out: 'Come right up here, come right up here. I want to shake hands with you; and shake hands he did.

Another prominent business man testified that Jesus saves all the way through, and that he can be carried into and through the business man's life. The after meeting was truly a grand one.

The rink will not be open for the children on Saturday until 2:15. Services will commence at 3 o'clock.

We urge you to read carefully, readers of the NEWS REVIEW, the following sermon of Rev. C. W. Huffer, delivered in the rink on Wednesday afternoon last. It is full of rich meat, bristling with good things, and, in the Providence of God, will bring you blessings:

"Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil"—Eph. 6:11. The word wiles means tactics or methods. It is a military term. It shows that there is a mighty battle going on between good and evil, between heaven and hell. Satan is the great enemy of the human family. He is not divided against himself. He does his work in a systematic way. If we would resist him we must know the methods that he uses to enslave men and keep them in his kingdom. That we may better understand his tactics, I will use Pharaoh, king of Egypt, as a type of the Evil One.

Moses and Aaron stood before Pharaoh, and requested that their people might hold a feast in the wilderness. The king replied by saying: 'Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.' His first method was to openly defy the power of God. He tried this same way with Eve when he said, 'Thou shalt not surely die.' He attempted the same thing with our Savior, when he promised to give him all the kingdoms of this world and the glory of them. The first Adam yielded to temptation; the second Adam did not. The apostle Peter warns us to 'be sober and vigilant, because our adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Men do not know how tightly Satan has bound them, until they try to get away from him. Pharaoh asked Moses to take the frogs away, and promised on that condition to grant the request of God's people. Moses said, 'When shall I take away the frogs?' The king said, tomorrow. That is what the devil is saying to hundreds of men and women in East Liverpool now. He is saying, 'Serve me one day more; wait until tomorrow, then I will let you go.' But Pharaoh did not let them go. Neither will the devil let you go. He is a miserable old liar. 'When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father of lies.' God's way is now. Behold, now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation. Today, if ye will hear his voice, hinder not your heart. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth. Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness. God's way is now. Satan's way is tomorrow. Which will you take?

Two more plagues came on Egypt—lice and flies. Pharaoh must have been a bald-headed man, for the flies soon led him to call for Moses. He proposed a compromise. He said: 'Moses, what's the use of going out of the land to worship? Sacrifice to God in this land. Serve God, but stay in my kingdom.' That is what the old serpent is saying today. You are just as good as a church member; you can help support the church; you can talk for the church; you can attend the church; but just stay in my kingdom. Brethren, do you not know that compromise with evil has been the great cause of this world? Compromise was the cause of the flood. The church and the world got married. The devil solemnized the contract. Compromise is the doctrine of Balaam. He advised Balak to make a compromise with the Israelites. He did so. The result was that many thousands of Israelites perished. Moses refused to make any compromise with Pharaoh. Then the king said, 'You can go away, but don't go far away. Keep near my kingdom. Don't get out of sight of my country.' He was a cunning old deceiver. He knew that the Israelites would look back after a while, and if they were not far away they would come back.

The Prince of Darkness deals that way with God's people now. He says, 'Don't go far into the kingdom of God. Keep near to the border of it.' See how little you can do in his kingdom. Do not do anything that you can keep from doing. See how much of the world you can take along with you. When I hear of church members playing cards and dancing and reading novels, I say they are trying to keep near the border of the kingdom. They are like Lot, when he left the altar built by Abraham. He pitched his tent toward Sodom. The very next thing we hear of him is in Sodom. So with these children of God. They pitch their tents toward the kingdom of darkness. We look again, and behold, they have crossed the line. They have become the servants of sin. Satan has them bound, hand and foot. Dear brethren, it is not enough just to enter the kingdom of God. We must have an abundant entrance. We must abound in the work of the Lord. We must press forward toward the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. If we would enter the pearly gates, we must obey our King. 'Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and enter through the gates into the city.'

After the plagues of Murrain, boils and hail, Pharaoh sent for Moses again. He said, 'I will let you go this time, but do me one favor before you go. Take away this hail and thunder, then you can go.' The devil is using this method now. To hundreds of convicted souls he is saying, 'Do me one more favor. Serve me another day, then I will let you go. Go with the old crowd once more. Take one more drink. Dance one more round. Spend one more night in the brothel, then I will let you go.' But he won't. He has been deceiving some of you by that promise for years. You are farther from the kingdom of God now than when you were then. O, friends, do not be deceived any longer. Come and stand on the Lord's side today.

When the plague of locusts was threatened, Pharaoh said, 'I will leave the men go, but leave your wives and little ones with me.' Satan has changed this method a little. He says, 'Your wives go and leave the husbands and boys with me. He knows that if he can keep the husbands, he will get the boys. And he does get them. Only about 5 per cent. of our young men are Christians. Now mark the answer of Moses. He said, 'We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds. That's what God wants now. He wants whole families to come to him. When we come he wants us to bring our treasures along.'

After the plagues of locusts and darkness, the king called for Moses again and said: 'You can all go, only leave flocks and herds with me.' So the tempter says now to business men. 'You can go over into the kingdom of God only leave your business with me.' Allow me to suggest the principles upon which you will conduct your business. Allow me an extra bottom in your half bushel; allow me to tinker with your scales; allow me to water the sugar; allow me to shorten your yard stick; allow me to put a lie in your mouth, so that you can sell shoddy goods for all wool.' Business men of East Liverpool, if we allow the devil to be our cashier he will not only get our money but he will get us. And he will bring us body, soul and spirit. God says: 'Provide things honest in the sight of all men.' Anything short of this will work sure condemnation.

Now let us see what brought deliverance. It was death. First, death of the paschal lamb. His blood applied saved them from the wrath of God. Then their was death of the first born. This made the Egyptians urge them to go. So in order to be delivered from sin there must be two deaths. One has taken place. Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed for us. His blood has been shed for the remission of our sins. We must die unto sin and become alive unto righteousness. We must crucify the old man with his lusts and evil deeds, and put on the new man which, after God, is created in righteousness and the holiness of truth.

After the two deaths the Israelites were still in Egypt. They were just ready to go out. They had their shoes on their feet and their loins girded about. But they were not delivered from Pharaoh's kingdom until they followed Moses, their leader, and crossed the Red sea. It was on the other side of the sea that they sang their songs of salvation and deliverance. So, when we have accepted of Christ's blood and have become dead unto sin, then we are to fix our eyes on Jesus, the captain of our salvation, and follow him. He will lead us safely out of the kingdom of Satan and bring us into the kingdom of God's dear Son.

'But, to as many as received him, to him gave he power as become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.' We take this power, accept the conditions of pardon, and become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Once in the kingdom, we are to lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is now set down at the right hand of the throne of God. May the Lord add his blessing, is my prayer.

LISBON NEWS.

A Divorce Action Comes From East Liverpool.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 27.—Three weeks ago in W. W. Jones' court at Salem a judgment for $127.32 was given to Samuel Groves, Sr., and a judgment for the same amount given to Samuel Groves, Jr., each against George S. Walton, who appealed the cases to common pleas court this morning. The amount was claimed due in each case for costs which have been paid by the plaintiff in the case of C. C. Snyder and others against Samuel Groves and others, which was tried in this court last term.

Attorneys Travis & Haddon, of East Liverpool, filed a petition in common pleas court this morning, in which Mrs. Dorcas B. Efauf asks the court to sever the tie between her and Sylvester Efauf. Her action is based on willful absence for over three years and neglect to provide for her for the past six years. The couple were married in Washington county nine years ago. She also wishes to be restored to her maiden name.

Marriage licenses were issued to John Colber and Mary Wilderson, and John Evans and Maggie Jackson.

ANOTHER VETERAN SPEAKS

His Mind Respecting the Action of the School Board.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—When an article is written and published on any subject for the benefit of the public, it would seem proper that the writer should give his name, especially so when in connection with another person or persons, as in the case of the "veteran" who has written and published the resolutions relative to "the Bible in the public schools," asking General Lyon post, Grand Army of the Republic, to endorse the same. If the writer of the resolutions is a "veteran," and member of the Grand Army, he should know that the proper place to have his resolutions endorsed by General Lyon post is at a regular meeting of the post in their hall and not through the public press. The writer of this article is a firm believer in the Bible, as is every member of the board of education.

THE CONDITION OF TRADE.

What the New York Correspondent Says.

"Among the wholesale trade the importers are still the favored ones, and import orders are receiving the first attention from visiting buyers. The buyers from the larger out of town firms have placed most of their orders, but there are still numerous smaller dealers in town. Reports from manufacturers' agents and from jobbers indicate that distribution lags at the retail end. The inevitable result of slackness in retail trade is a hesitancy on the part of buyers to place orders of any size. Salesmen on the road are having a fair degree of success, especially in the eastern and central states. The reports from Atlanta, Baltimore and other southern cities are not up to expectations; nor is the Canadian trade altogether satisfactory."

MORE OF THE QUEER.

A Bogus Quarter Was Given in Making Change.

That this community is flooded with counterfeit money is evident from the frequency with which the bogus stuff turns up. Yesterday William Brown, colored, received change for a dollar from a saloonkeeper of this city, and later, when he came to examine the money, he found that he had in his possession a counterfeit quarter. Returning to the saloon he demanded that a good piece of money be given him, but met with a refusal from the dispenser of liquor, who denied that he had given Brown the money. The latter vows that he will be even with the saloonist if the loss is not made good.

A SUGGESTION.

Residents Think That a Light Should Be Placed at Third Street.

A gentleman who lives in the vicinity of city hall, in a conversation with a reporter this morning, said: "It has always been a mystery to me why there has never been an electric light placed at the corner of Third and Market streets, unless it is that council thought the gas jet which is on the corner is sufficient. It would be a good plan for the light committee, if the city ever built their own plant, to recommend that a light be placed there. It is one of the darkest corners in town and should be fixed."

A. H. Clark is our man.

THEY ARE GONE.

The Huber Family and Tommy Humphreys Depart.

The Huber family, consisting of the father and mother and four children, and Tommy Humphreys, were taken to Pittsburg on their way to the old country by Trustee Lloyd at noon today. The Huber family go to Baltimore and set sail for Germany tomorrow morning at 8:30 on the steamer H. H. Wier. Tommy Humphreys goes to Philadelphia and leaves tomorrow afternoon for Birmingham on the steamer Penman. Word was received from Lizzie Spring, the girl who was sent last week, that she had arrived all right in Philadelphia, and set sail on time.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Will W. Weaver and Miss Jessie Geren Were Made One.

Will W. Weaver, of this city, and Miss Jessie Geren, of Wellsville, were quietly married at the residence of Rev. John Lloyd Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, last night at 8 o'clock. The bridegroom is one of the most popular and rising young men of this city, and has been employed with the Thompson Pottery company for several years past, while the bride is one of the most estimable young ladies of that city. The young couple have a host of friends who wish them a world of happiness in their life's journey.

THEIR REPORT.

The Township Trustees' Report For the Month of March.

The township trustees' report for last month shows a slight improvement, and when compared with the same month for this time last year shows that, despite the fact that the physician's bill was paid out of this month, there is not such a heavy demand on the trustees by the city's poor. The report shows that they received from the county $184.45, and from the township $176.57. The same time last year they received from the county $321.12, and from the township $72.95, showing a decrease of $29.05 over that of last year.

IS ALMOST OVER.

The Campaign Will Close Tomorrow at Noon.

The county primaries will be held tomorrow afternoon, and from all appearances an unusually large vote will be polled in this city, as it has been more thoroughly canvassed than ever before. All the candidates for the various offices have spent the past two or three days here, seeming to realize that the way the vote goes in East Liverpool means their election or defeat, as the successful candidate must in almost all cases get Liverpool's large vote to win out.

THREW A SAGGER.

It Struck His Fellow Workman on the Head.

Two employees of Goodwin's pottery, a kiln hand and the other a sagger maker, became involved in a heated argument yesterday at the factory on a question relating to the election. They became excited and the kiln hand was so exasperated over the remarks of his shopmate that, in a fit of anger, gathered up a sagger short and hurled it at his head, cutting quite a gash. The injured man was taken to a physician and four stitches put in the wound. No arrests have been made.

I love the saloonkeepers' souls; but, as for their business, I wish it was in hell, where it belongs.

"I have had splendid treatment in East Liverpool. I love your hustling, busy city, with the industries furnishing employment to so many men and women. Oh, I wish, men and women of this busy city, that you would treat Jesus as well as you do me. May the God of all mercies bless and keep and save you."

The evangelist then asked for witnesses for Jesus, repeating his call of 'What do you think of Jesus?' And then a great cloud of witnesses arose and testified to the power and mercy and love of the blessed Christ, he who had died for them and saved them. In time and in eternity. One man testified that he had been a drinker for 30 years, and that, some four years ago, he had accepted Christ, and the curse had been taken away from and out of his life. Schiverea cried out: 'Without the Keeley cure, without the affirmative, the evangelist shouted out: 'Come right up here, come right up here. I want to shake hands with you!' and shake hands he did.

Another prominent business man testified that Jesus saves all the way through, and that he can be carried into and through the business man's life. The after meeting was truly a grand one.

The rink will not be open for the children on Saturday until 2:15. Services will commence at 3 o'clock.

We urge you to read carefully, readers of the NEWS REVIEW, the following sermon of Rev. C. W. Huffer, delivered in the rink on Wednesday afternoon last. It is full of rich meat, bristling with good things, and, in the Providence of God, will bring you blessings:

"Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil"—Eph. 6:11.

The word wiles means tactics or methods. It is a military term. It shows that there is a mighty battle going on between good and evil, between heaven and hell. Satan is the great enemy of the human family. He is not divided against himself. He does his work in a systematic way. If we would resist him we must know the methods that he uses to enslave men and keep them in his kingdom. That we may better understand his tactics, I will use Pharaoh, king of Egypt, as a type of the Evil One.

Moses and Aaron stood before Pharaoh, and requested that their people might hold a feast in the wilderness. The king replied by saying, "Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go." His first method was to openly defy the power of God. He tried this same way with Eve when he said, "Thou shalt not surely die." He attempted the same thing with all the kingdoms of this world and the glory of them. The first Adam yielded to temptation; the second Adam did not. The apostle Peter warns us to "be sober and vigilant, because our adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Men do not know how tightly Satan has bound them, until they try to get away from him. Pharaoh increased the burdens of the Israelites. So when men try to break the fetters of the devil, he increases their burdens.

God, through Moses, turned the Nile into blood. Then frogs came up from the river and plagued the Egyptians. They had frogs everywhere. Pharaoh asked Moses to take the frogs away, and promised on that condition to grant the request of God's people. Moses said, "When shall I take away the frogs?" The king said, "Tomorrow." That is what the devil is saying to hundreds of men and women in East Liverpool now. He is saying, "Serve me one day more; wait until tomorrow, then I will let you go." But Pharaoh did not let them go. Neither will the devil let you go. He is a miserable old liar. "When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father of lies." God's way is now. Behold, now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation. Today, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth. Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness. God's way is now. Satan's way is tomorrow. Which will you take?

Two more plagues came on Egypt—lice and flies. Pharaoh must have been a bald-headed man, for the flies soon led him to call for Moses. He proposed a compromise. He said: "Moses, what's the use of going out of the land to worship? Sacrifice to God in this land. Serve God, but stay in my kingdom!" That is what the old serpent is saying today. You are just as good as a church member; you can help support the church; you can talk for the church; you can attend the church; but just stay in my kingdom. Brethren, do you not know that compromise with evil has been the great cause of this world? Compromise was the cause of the flood. The church and the world got married. The devil solemnized the contract. Compromise is the doctrine of Balaam. He advised Balak to make a compromise with the Israelites. He did so. The result was that many thousands of Israelites perished. Moses refused to make any compromise with Pharaoh. Then the king said, "You can go away, but don't go far away. Keep near my kingdom. Don't get out of sight of my country." He was a cunning old deceiver. He knew that the Israelites would look back after a while, and if they were not far away they would come back.

The Prince of Darkness deals that way with God's people now. He says, "Don't go far into the kingdom of God. Keep near to the border of it." See how little you can do in his kingdom. Do not do anything that you can keep from doing. See how much of the world you can take along with you. When I hear of church members playing cards and dancing and reading novels, I say they are trying to keep near the border of the kingdom. They are like Lot, when he left the altar built by Abraham. He pitched his tent toward Sodom. The very next thing we hear of him is in Sodom. So with these children of God. They pitch their tents toward the kingdom of darkness. We look again, and behold, they have crossed the line. They have become the servants of sin. Satan has them bound, hand and foot. Dear brethren, it is not enough just to enter the kingdom of God. We must have an abundant entrance. We must press forward to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. If we would enter the pearly gates, we must obey our King. "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and enter through the gates into the city."

After the plagues of Murrain, boils and hail, Pharaoh sent for Moses again. He said, "I will let you go this time, but do me one favor before you go. Take away this hail and thunder, then you can go."

The devil is using this method now. To hundreds of convicted souls he is saying, "Do me one more favor. Serve me another day, then I will let you go. Go with the old crowd once more. Take one more drink. Dance one more round. Spend one more night in the brothel, then I will let you go." But he won't. He has been deceiving some of you by that promise for years. You are farther from the kingdom of God now than you were then. O, friends, do not be deceived any longer. Come and stand on the Lord's side today.

When the plague of locusts was threatened, Pharaoh said, "I will leave the men go, but leave your wives and little ones with me."

Satan has changed this method a little. He says, "Your wives go and leave the husbands and boys with me. He knows that if he can keep the husbands, he will get the boys. And he does get them. Only about 5 per cent. of our young men are Christians. Now mark the answer of Moses. He said, "We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds." That is what God wants now. He wants whole families to come to him. When we come he wants us to bring our treasures along.

After the plagues of locusts and darkness, the king called for Moses again and said: "You can let me go, only leave flocks and herds with me." So the tempter says now to business men, "You can go over into the kingdom of God only leave your business with me." Allow me but to suggest the principles upon which you will conduct your business. Allow me but an extra bottom in your half bushel; allow me to tinker with your scales; allow me to water the sugar; allow me to shorten your yard stick; allow me to put a lie in your mouth, so that you can sell shoddy goods for all wool." Business men of East Liverpool, if we allow the devil to be our cashier he will not only get our money but he will get us. And he will bring us body, soul and spirit. God says: "Provide things honest in the sight of all men." Anything short of this will work sure condemnation. It was death. First, death of the paschal lamb. His blood applied saved them from the wrath of God. Then their was death of the first born. This made the Egyptians urge them to go. So in order to be delivered from sin there must be two deaths. One has taken place. Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed for us. His blood has been shed for the remission of our sins. We must die unto sin and become alive unto righteousness. We must crucify the old man with his lusts and evil deeds, and put on the new man which, after God, is created in righteousness and the holiness of truth.

After the two deaths the Israelites were still in Egypt. They were just ready to go out. They had their shoes on their feet and their loins girded about. But they were not delivered from Pharaoh's kingdom until they followed Moses, their leader, and crossed the Red sea. It was on the other side of the sea that they sang their songs of salvation and deliverance. So, when we have accepted of Christ's blood and have become dead unto sin, then we are to fix our eyes on Jesus, the captain of our salvation, and follow him. He will lead us safely out of the kingdom of Satan and bring us into the kingdom of God's dear Son.

"But, to as many as received him, to him gave he power as become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." We take this power, accept the conditions of pardon, and become heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Once in the kingdom, we are to lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is now set down at the right hand of the throne of God. May the Lord add his blessing, is my prayer.

LISBON NEWS.

A Divorce Action Comes From East Liverpool.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 27.—Three weeks ago in W. W. Jones' court at Salem a judgment for $127.32 was given to Samuel Groves, Sr., and a judgment for the same amount given to Samuel Groves, Jr., each against George S. Walton, who appealed the cases to common pleas court this morning. The amount was claimed due in each case for costs which have been paid by the plaintiff in the case of C. C. Snyder and others against Samuel Groves and others, which was tried in this court last term.

Attorneys Travis & Hassen, of East Liverpool, filed a petition in common pleas court this morning, in which Mrs. Dorcas B. Efauf asks the court to sever the tie between her and Sylvester Efauf. Her action is based on wilful absence for over three years and neglect to provide for her for the past six years. The couple were married in Washington county nine years ago. She also wishes to be restored to her maiden name.

Marriage licenses were issued to John Colber and Mary Wilderson, and John Evans and Maggie Jackson.

ANOTHER VETERAN SPEAKS

His Mind Respecting the Action of the School Board.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—When an article is written and published on any subject for the benefit of the public, it would seem proper that the writer should give his name, especially so when in connection with another person or persons, as in the case of the "veteran" who has written and published the resolutions relative to "the Bible in the public schools," asking General Lyon post, Grand Army of the Republic, to endorse the same. If the writer of the resolutions is a "veteran," and member of the Grand Army, he should know that the proper place to have his resolutions endorsed by General Lyon post is at a regular meeting of the post in their hall and not through the public press. The writer of this article is a firm believer in the Bible, as is every member of the board of education.

What the New York Correspondent Says.

"Among the wholesale trade the importers are still the favored ones, and import orders are receiving the first attention from visiting buyers. The buyers from the larger out of town firms have placed most of their orders, but there are still numerous smaller dealers in town. Reports from manufacturers' agents and from jobbers indicate that distribution lags at the retail end. The inevitable result of slackness in retail trade is a hesitancy on the part of buyers to place orders of any size. Salesmen on the road are having a fair degree of success, especially in the eastern and central states. The reports from Atlanta, Baltimore and other southern cities are not up to expectations; nor is the Canadian trade altogether satisfactory."

MORE OF THE QUEER.

A Bogus Quarter Was Given in Making Change.

That this community is flooded with counterfeit money is evident from the frequency with which the bogus stuff turns up. Yesterday William Brown, colored, received change for a dollar from a saloonkeeper of this city, and later, when he came to examine the money, he found that he had in his possession a counterfeit quarter. Returning to the saloon he demanded that a good piece of money be given him, but met with a refusal from the dispenser of liquor, who denied that he had given Brown the money. The latter vows that he will be even with the saloonist if the loss is not made good.

A SUGGESTION.

Residents Think That a Light Should Be Placed at Third Street.

A gentleman who lives in the vicinity of city hall, in a conversation with a reporter this morning, said: "It has always been a mystery to me why there has never been an electric light placed at the corner of Third and Market streets, unless it is that council thought the gas jet which is on the corner is sufficient. It would be a good plan for the light committee, if the city ever built their own plant, to recommend that a light be placed there. It is one of the darkest corners in town and should be fixed."

THEY ARE GONE.

The Huber Family and Tommy Humphreys Depart.

The Huber family, consisting of the father and mother and four children, and Tommy Humphreys, were taken to Pittsburgh on their way to the old country by Trustee Lloyd at noon today. The Huber family go to Baltimore and set sail for Germany tomorrow morning at 8:30 on the steamer H. H. Wier. Tommy Humphreys goes to Philadelphia and leaves tomorrow afternoon for Birmingham, on the steamer Penman. Word was received from Lizzie Spring, the girl who was sent last week, that she had arrived all right in Philadelphia, and set sail on time.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Will W. Weaver and Miss Jessie Geren Were Made One.

Will W. Weaver, of this city, and Miss Jessie Geren, of Wellsville, were quietly married at the residence of Rev. John Lloyd Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, last night at 8 o'clock. The bridegroom is one of the most popular and rising young men of this city, and has been employed with the Thompson Pottery company for several years past, while the bride is one of the most estimable young ladies of that city. The young couple have a host of friends who wish them a world of happiness in their life's journey.

THEIR REPORT.

The Township Trustees' Report For the Month of March.

The township trustees' report for last month shows a slight improvement, and when compared with the same month for this time last year shows that, despite the fact that the physician's bill was paid out of this month, there is not such a heavy demand on the trustees by the city's poor. The report shows that they received from the county $184.45, and from the township $176.57. The same time last year they received from the county $321.12, and from the township $72.95, showing a decrease of $29.05 over that of last year.

Vote for A. H. Clark.

IS ALMOST OVER.

The Campaign Will Close Tomorrow at Noon.

The county primaries will be held tomorrow afternoon, and from all appearances an unusually large vote will be polled in this city, as it has been more thoroughly canvassed than ever before. All the candidates for the various offices have spent the past two or three days here, seeming to realize that the way the vote goes in East Liverpool means their election or defeat, as the successful candidate must in almost all cases get Liverpool's large vote to win out.

THREW A SAGGER.

It Struck His Fellow Workman on the Head.

Two employes of Goodwin's pottery, one a kiln hand and the other a sagger maker, became involved in a heated argument yesterday at the factory on a question relating to the election. They became excited and the kiln hand was so exasperated over the remarks of his shopmate that, in a fit of anger, gathered up a sagger short and hurled it at his head, cutting quite a gash. The injured man was taken to a physician and four stitches put in the wound. No arrests have been made.

A RECOMMENDATION.

A daily paper of this city, published in the lower regions, and advocating everything but that which is pure and true, made a very vile attack last night upon B. H. Hodgson, the Bible candidate for the school board from the Second ward. Mr. Hodgson has the assurance that this condemnation of him, in such a sheet as the one designated, is a sure passport to the good graces of all citizens who believe in the cause of right and truth. The supposititious editor of the supposititious paper, published somewhere in the lower regions, succeeds admirably in disgusting the few subscribers which still suffer the infliction of its presence.

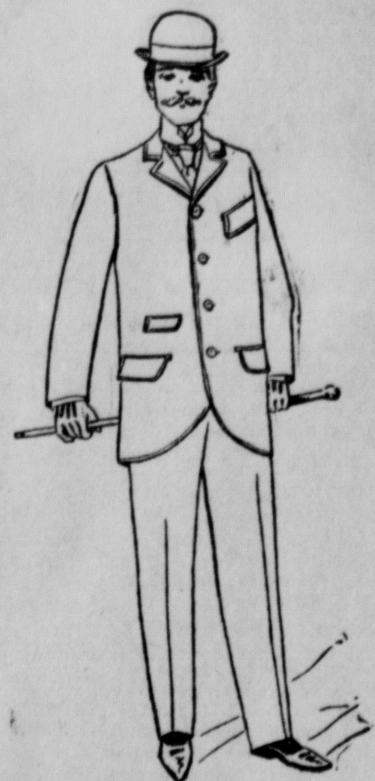

WAS KICKED.

The down town advocate of everything wrong, and hot opponent of everything right, has fallen in love (?) with the Prohibition party and the candidates thereof, much to the disgust of the Prohibition leaders and their followers, as they believe in the adage that "evil communications corrupt good manners." The fun of the affair, however, rests in the fact that the burglar's tool, Jimmy, was compelled to grovel in the dust of humiliation and mortification on Saturday last, as Jimmy is one of the number who tried to effect a fusion with the Prohibition party and was kicked into the valley of despondency. Jimmy has become accustomed to being kicked, however, and the process does not affect him as it would a man. The attack upon B. H. Hodgson, by Jimmy's editorial tool, is the vilest thing which has occurred in that vile sheet for some time, and will result in making many votes for Mr. Hodgson, the soles of whose shoes Jimmy and his tool are not worthy of wiping.

DON'T GO TO SLEEP.

Bible lovers in the Third ward, remember that you have wide awake opponents who are battling under the "No Bible" banner, and you dare not be idle for a moment if you expect to win out a victory in favor of the blessed book being read in our schools. Father Smythe has thrown down the gauge of battle, and he will back this up, with every vote which he can control, in favor of John N. Taylor and Will L. Smith. An odd combination, is it not, and one which should be defeated? The friends of Smith and Taylor have instructions to spread the report that those in favor of the Bible will win in the Third ward with hands down. Don't you take any stock in such nonsense, and don't be lulled into false security. The enemies of the Bible are wide awake, and they

JOSEPH BROS.

AN EASY BET TO WIN.

It Took Only a Short Time to Collect "More Than Twenty" Fools.

They stepped to the edge of the sidewalk and looked long and earnestly in the direction of the cornice of one of the big buildings. Of course under the circumstances the man who had been standing in the doorway felt impelled to join them. He could not see anything extraordinary at the top of the building, but he kept his eyes upturned because they did.

A man who was hurrying along saw the three, and he at once forgot where he was going and what he had to do, and joined them.

"I told you so," said the man who had first cast his eyes in that direction, and he made a motion as if to point out something to his companion.

Four men who were passing saw the gesture and stopped to investigate, and before they had fairly fixed their gaze upon the cornice three others joined them.

"You may be right," returned the companion of the man who had first spoken, "but you said 20, you know." Six more people, including two women, were now straining their eyes to see what was wrong with the cornice, and a rumor was in circulation that some one had tried to throw a child out of one of the windows. This was promptly denied by the man who knows it all and who is always present on such an occasion. He said that a gang of counterfeiters had been found on the top floor and had taken refuge on the roof, where they were preparing to do battle with the officers who had been sent to arrest them.

Meanwhile the little group at the edge of the sidewalk had swelled to a crowd of over a hundred.

"Well, are you satisfied now?" asked the man who had first stopped.

"Yes," replied his companion.

"There are more than 20," he said.

"More than 20 what?" anxiously inquired several of those nearest the two.

"Fools," returned the first speaker promptly, "inspired idiots. You see, we had a dispute as to the number of fools to be seen on the streets of a great city, and I bet him we could gather 20 around us in ten minutes by simply standing out here and looking up at the cornice. Gentlemen, there are more than 20 of you here, and I win."

Then a hundred or more solemn looking men, and a few women, went on about their business, and they all felt like kicking themselves without intermission for a period of not less than two hours.—Chicago Post.

The Wheel and England.

Take the Great North road. Except upon market days, one might have traveled any 50 miles along it between Highgate and York without meeting 50 people. Towns which literally lived by the road had drifted into a helplessly somnolent condition, from which no apparent human agency could awaken them, and the stranger thereto was stared at as much as if he had been a highlander or an Iroquois in full warpaint.

The highway itself, being of no particular value to anybody since the Great Northern railway began to whirl the old patrons of the road along at 45 miles an hour, was allowed to decay, and in wet seasons or snowy weather was well nigh impassable.

The rage for wheeling has produced a rapid transformation. Station yourself at any point you like, and try to count the machines which pass on a fine Saturday afternoon during the course of an hour, and you will soon abandon the task as hopeless. Then, consider that every rider of every machine spends something during his trip, even if it be but the cost of a temperance drink. Consider that a very large number of Saturday riders sleep out and make good meals during their journey; that they are constantly spending something over and above their actual traveling expenses; that the wonderful extension of our acquaintance with our own country resulting from these peaceful invasions of the metropolis, but of every city and considerable town in the land, has led to the refurbishing up of such local lions as the castle, or the abbey, or the great Somebody's birthplace, or the waterfall, or the view (the inspection of all of which means the expenditure of money), and an approximate idea may be gained of the influence upon national trade which this pastime alone exercises.—Chambers' Journal.

REVOLVERS AND FISTS

Helped Make the Texas Republican Convention Lively.

MCKINLEYITES WERE KNOCKED OUT

But They Made a Noble Struggle, Tearing the Desks to Pieces and Smashing Speaker Cuney—Allison-Reed Men Capture the Convention.

AUSTIN, March 27.—The Republican convention, which has been in session in this city since Tuesday, has adjourned sine die, after having enjoyed the distinction of narrowly avoiding a funeral and having the not-unusual thing now-a-days in Texas of a split convention.

The situation looked threatening from the very start. The McKinley men worked all night among the negroes and succeeded in bringing over quite a number of them, so that when the hour for convening arrived it found the McKinley men with an organized force occupying the center of the hall, with a very determined look on their faces and an air of fight surrounding them. Cuney, the negro chairman of the convention, when he mounted the rostrum took in the situation at a glance, and seeing that the McKinley men were assuming formidable strength, immediately sent his emissaries out for his forces, and pending their return, he did not turn a die in the matter of opening the convention, putting forth the excuse that the committee on credentials was not ready to report.

He finally got his forces together after waiting about three hours and the committee on credentials putting in an appearance about the same time the convention was called to order. The first work of the convention was the receiving and adoption of the credentials committee report. Its introduction immediately precipitated a row, and while the McKinley faction fought nobly to get some fair showing Cuney, with his arbitrary rulings, shut them out entirely and organized the convention with the Reed-Allison men in exclusive charge.

When the Reed-Allison faction elected their delegation to St. Louis, the McKinley men immediately swarmed in on the platform, knocked the chairman down and tore the desks all to pieces; pistols were drawn and free fist fights indulged in. Policemen swarmed into the building and knocked the fighters right and left. The convention hall was an amphitheater for fist fights, but no blood was spilled. The McKinley men were completely defeated.

A sound money plank was adopted. Two of the delegates are for McKinley two for Reed.

Immediately after the regular convention adjourned, the McKinley faction took charge of the hall and organized their convention and elected McKinley delegates. The contest will have to be decided at St. Louis.

DEPEW ON THE SITUATION.

McKinley's Chance Will Be Gone After the First Ballot.

LOS ANGELES, March 27.—March 27.—Chauncey M. Depew, who is in this city, when asked for his views on the political situation, said:

"It is generally conceded that on the first ballot at the Republican national convention McKinley will receive more votes than any other candidate. This, however, singles him out as the one man dangerous to all others, and, as often happens in national conventions, numerous combinations will doubtless be made in order to counteract the influence of his candidacy upon wavering delegations.

"If Mr. McKinley could secure the nomination on the first ballot that would settle the whole trouble. But I am confident he will not have the votes necessary to win at that stage, and that he will be forced, in the end, to abandon the field. Every indication favors the presumption that Mr. Morton will profit from this failure on the first ballot of Mr. McKinley, and that the presidential candidate will come from New York. New York gave Cleveland a plurality of 190,000 and Morton a plurality of 185,000. This shows the changeable nature of the vote in the Empire state. It will be considered at St. Louis, and the Republicans of New York have no fears regarding the result."

First Official Gun For Reed.

BOSTON, March 27.—What was the first official big gun for Hon. Thomas B. Reed as a candidate for president of the United States was fired, with great enthusiasm, at the Republican state convention here today.

McKinley Delegates Chosen.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 27.—The Republicans of the Third congressional district have elected delegates who favor McKinley, protection and sound money.

ARMING AGAINST ENGLAND.

The Transvaal and Orange Free State Form an Alliance.

LONDON, March 27.—A Pretoria, Transvaal, dispatch to The Times says: "The situation is serious. President Kruger has concluded a new offensive and defensive alliance with the Orange Free State. President Steyn of the Orange Free State and the Transvaal executive council strongly advise President Kruger not to go to England. The Transvaal wants its independence guaranteed by England in connection with the other powers."

An editorial in The Times comments upon the gravity of the foregoing facts, "which," says The Times, "emanate from a trustworthy private source. If these are true, it indicates a powerful coalition against England."

Made a Chief Justice.

CONCORD, N. H., March 27.—Hon. Alonzo P. Carpenter has been appointed chief justice of the New Hampshire supreme court.

An American Honored.

LONDON, March 27.—George Henry Boughton, the distinguished American artist, has been elected a Royal Academician.

AFRICAN NATIVES REVOLT.

Matabele Rebel Against English Rule and Massacre Whites.

CAPE TOWN, March 27.—The Matabele of the Inscza and Flabusi districts have revolted and massacred the white settlers, including Commissary Bentley. The fugitive whites are flocking to Bulawayo and Gwelo for protection. A detachment of 75 volunteers, with a Maxim gun, have been dispatched against the natives.

The Matabele towns are preparing their defenses and enrolling volunteers. An additional force will be sent from Bulawayo to Inscza and Gwelo. The Indians arrested at Zionis arrived at Bulawayo at noon and reported that his farm had been raided and the cattle looted. He thinks that strong and prompt measures will quell the revolt.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA REBEL.

Vote Against Using Egyptian Money For the Nile Expedition.

LONDON, March 27.—A special dispatch from Cairo says that the French and Russian members of the Egyptian debt commission left the meeting after protesting against the use of the reserve fund for the purposes of the British-Egyptian expedition up the Nile.

The English, German, Italian and Austrian members of the commission voted to advance the money required. The Russian and French members voted against the proposition.

Sir George Curzon, of the foreign office, in the house of commons, said a majority vote was all that was needed.

Tried to Lynch a Preacher.

FRESNO, Cal., March 27.—An attempt has been made to lynch Johnston, the minister who a few nights ago charged from the pulpit that two-thirds of the girls of Fresno were ruined before they arrived at the age of 14. Officers rescued him from an angry mob and he is now under the protection of the sheriff.

Boy Chained For Two Years.

LOUISVILLE, March 27.—Eleven-year-old Elbert Hendren of Jefferson town has come into the city with a chain two feet long attached to his ankle. He was taken to a hardware store and the chain removed. He says that for two years his father, William Hendren, has had him chained to a log.

Military Medal For Sewell.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—A medal of honor has been awarded to Brevet Major General William J. Sewell, United States senator from New Jersey, by direction of the president for conspicuous gallantry at the battle of Chancellorsville, May 3, 1863.

National League Umpires.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—President N. E. Young has appointed the following gentlemen on his staff of umpires for this season: Sheridan, Lynch, Hurst, Emslie, Keefe, Weidman and Henderson, with Dan Campbell as substitute.

Burglars Fare Badly.

PERMANENT PEACE TRIBUNAL

New York Lawyers Continue Their Work For International Arbitration.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The committee on international arbitration of the New York State Bar association has held a meeting here: The committee was appointed for the purpose of formulating a plan for the organization of a court of arbitration for the settlement of differences that may arise between the governments of English speaking people.

Correspondence has already been had with the officers of all the state bar associations and it is expected that they will co-operate with the New York State Bar association in the scheme.

The sub-committee consisting of Walter S. Logan and W. Martin Jones has presented a plan for international arbitration. Before the formal adoption of the plan it will be submitted to President Cleveland in a memorial, but this will not be done until a general meeting has been held of the arbitration committee, representing all the state bar associations of the country. The plan submitted by the sub-committee provides for the organization of a permanent international tribunal.

The bar associations throughout this country and in Great Britain are in sympathy with the movement. The features of the plan provide for the naming by the United States government and Great Britain of judicial officers, who shall constitute a court for the settlement of all diplomatic differences that shall arise between the two nations.

STATEHOOD FOR TERRITORIES.

Vote Likely In the House on Arizona and New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The statehood bills for the admission of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico will be again passed upon by the house committee on territories at its meeting next Thursday. The committee has decided, without any formal vote, to take the bills up next week and vote upon them a second time.

The New Mexico bill has been reported favorably to the senate, but the house committee, by a very close vote, taken several weeks ago, decided not to report them to the house. It is now claimed by the advocates of statehood that the two committees, who voted against reporting the bills, have come to the opinion that the best plan will be to lay them before the house and let the whole house take the responsibility of passing or rejecting them. This course has been advocated by some of the party leaders in the house.

A RECOMMENDATION.

A daily paper of this city, published in the lower regions, and advocating everything but that which is pure and true, made a very vile attack last night upon B. H. Hodgson, the Bible candidate for the school board from the Second ward. Mr. Hodgson has the assurance that this condemnation of him, in such a sheet as the one designated, is a sure passport to the good graces of all citizens who believe in the cause of right and truth. The supposititious editor of the supposititious paper, published somewhere in the lower regions, succeeds admirably in disgusting the few subscribers which still suffer the infliction of its presence.

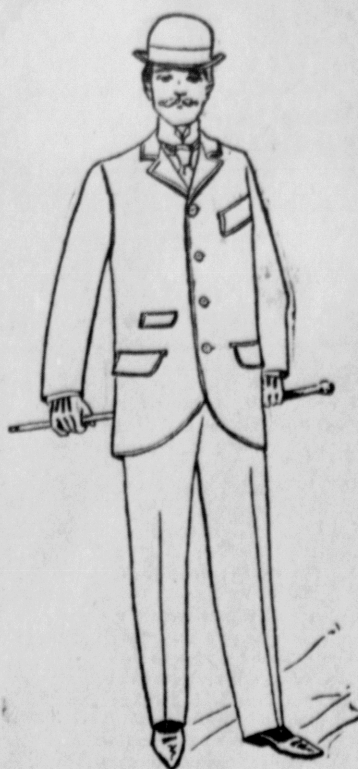

WAS KICKED.

The down town advocate of everything wrong, and hot opponent of everything right, has fallen in love (?) with the Prohibition party and the candidates thereof, much to the disgust of the Prohibition leaders and their followers, as they believe in the adage that "evil communications corrupt good manners." The fun of the affair, however, rests in the fact that the burglar's tool, Jimmy, was compelled to grovel in the dust of humiliation and mortification on Saturday last, as Jimmy is one of the number who tried to effect a fusion with the Prohibition party and was kicked into the valley of despondency. Jimmy has become accustomed to being kicked, however, and the process does not affect him as it would a man. The attack upon B. H. Hodgson, by Jimmy's editorial tool, is the vilest thing which has occurred in this city sheet for some time, and will result in making many votes for Mr. Hodgson, the soles of whose shoes Jimmy and his tool are not worthy of wiping.

DON'T GO TO SLEEP.

Bible lovers in the Third ward, remember that you have wide awake opponents who are battling under the "No Bible" banner, and you dare not be idle for a moment if you expect to win out a victory in favor of the blessed book being read in our schools. Father Smythe has thrown down the gauge of battle, and he will back this up, with every vote which he can control, in favor of John N. Taylor and Will L. Smith. An odd combination, is it not, and one which should be defeated? The friends of Smith and Taylor have instructions to spread the report that those in favor of the Bible will win in the Third ward with hands down. Don't you take any stock in such nonsense, and don't be lulled into false security. The enemies of the Bible are wide awake, and they expect to win. John N. Taylor and Will L. Smith will be very hard men to defeat, as they have control of certain machinery and power which gives them a decided advantage. Don't imagine for a moment, however, that we do not think they can be defeated. It can be done, and the ballots of those who love home and fireside, and the best interests of their children, combined with the lasting interests of East Liverpool, are the influences which will bring victory. Do your duty, your whole duty, every man and woman entitled to a vote, and leave the rest in the hands of God. The Master will give you credit on the books kept in heaven, if you do your full duty upon earth. Cast your ballot against Taylor and Smith on April 6, 1896.

"THIS VETERAN SPEAKS."

In the News Review of Thursday, March 26, an old soldier, a member of General Lyon post, G. A. R., published an article respecting the reading of the Bible in the public schools, suggesting to General Lyon post the propriety of adopting a series of resolutions which he had drawn up and had published in this paper, which he had a perfect right to do, and therefore was accorded the courtesy of the necessary space by Manager Palmer, especially as his views on the Bible question accorded fully with the views entertained by the News Review management. Today, in an article in another column, William H. Surles, another veteran, takes the first veteran to task, and attempts to teach veteran No. 1 his duty under the circumstances. Knowing No. 1 as the writer does, veteran No. 2 is not qualified to teach No. 1, a man who bears an unimpeachable record and who is as bright and keen as any man in all this section, an active worker in Grand Army circles, and a man who loves his Bible dearly and believes implicitly that the attack upon the blessed book is indirectly an attack upon our public school system, and this belief is entertained by a number whose name is legion. W. H. Surles says he is a believer in the Bible, "as is every member of the school board." If he means by the word "believer" the upholding and honoring of the word of God, and his belief is the same as some of the members of the school board he advocates, as exemplified in declaring that the book of books shall not be read in the schools, by the teachers to the pupils, then we are firmly of the opinion, based on common sense, that Will H. Surles is very much more in need of enlightenment than is veteran No. 1.

Helped Make the Texas Republican Convention Lively.

MCKINLEYITES WERE KNOCKED OUT

But They Made a Noble Struggle, Tearing the Desks to Pieces and Smashing Speaker Cuney—Allison-Reed Men Capture the Convention.

AUSTIN, March 27.—The Republican convention, which has been in session in this city since Tuesday, has adjourned sine die, after having enjoyed the distinction of narrowly avoiding a funeral and having the not-unusual thing now-a-days in Texas of a split convention.

The situation looked threatening from the very start. The McKinley men worked all night among the negroes and succeeded in bringing over quite a number of them, so that when the hour for convening arrived it found the McKinley men with an organized force occupying the center of the hall, with a very determined look on their faces and an air of fight surrounding them. Cuney, the negro chairman of the convention, when he mounted the rostrum took the situation at a glance, and seeing that the McKinley men were assuming formidable strength, immediately sent his emissaries out for his forces, and pending their return, he did not turn a die in the matter of opening the convention, putting forth the excuse that the committee on credentials was not ready to report.

He finally got his forces together after waiting about three hours and the committee on credentials putting in an appearance about the same time the convention was called to order. The first work of the convention was the receiving and adoption of the credentials committee report. Its introduction immediately precipitated a row, and while the McKinley faction fought nobly to get some fair showing Cuney, with his arbitrary rulings, shut them out entirely and organized the convention with the Reed-Allison men in exclusive charge.

When the Reed-Allison faction elected their delegation to St. Louis, the McKinley men immediately swarmed in on the platform, knocked the chairman down and tore the desks all to pieces; pistols were drawn and free fist fights indulged in. Policemen swarmed into the building and knocked the fighters right and left. The convention hall was an amphitheater for fist fights, but no blood was spilled. The McKinley men were completely defeated.

A sound money plank was adopted. Two of the delegates are for McKinley two for Reed.

DEPEW ON THE SITUATION.

McKinley's Chance Will Be Gone After the First Ballot.

LOS ANGELES, March 27.—March 27, Chauncey M. Depew, who is in this city, when asked for his views on the political situation, said:

"It is generally conceded that on the first ballot at the Republican national convention McKinley will receive more votes than any other candidate. This, however, singles him out as the one man dangerous to all others, and, as often happens in national conventions, numerous combinations will doubtless be made in order to counteract the influence of his candidacy upon wavering delegations."

"If Mr. McKinley could secure the nomination on the first ballot that would settle the whole trouble. But I am confident he will not have the votes necessary to win at that stage, and that he will be forced, in the end, to abandon the field. Every indication favors the presumption that Mr. Morton will profit from this failure on the first ballot of Mr. McKinley, and that the presidential candidate will come from New York."

New York gave Cleveland a plurality of 100,000 and Morton a plurality of 180,000. This shows the changeable nature of the vote in the Empire state. It will be considered at St. Louis, and the Republicans of New York have no fears regarding the result."

First Official Gun For Reed.

BOSTON, March 27.—What was the first official big gun for Hon. Thomas B. Reed as a candidate for president of the United States was fired with great enthusiasm, at the Republican state convention here today.

McKinley Delegates Chosen.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 27.—The Republicans of the Third congressional district have elected delegates who favor McKinley, protection and sound money.

ARMING AGAINST ENGLAND.

The Transvaal and Orange Free State Form an Alliance.

LONDON, March 27.—A Pretoria, Transvaal, dispatch to The Times says: "The situation is serious. President Kruger has concluded a new offensive and defensive alliance with the Orange Free State. President Steyn of the Orange Free State and the Transvaal executive council strongly advise President Kruger not to go to England. The Transvaal wants its independence guaranteed by England in connection with the other powers."

An editorial in The Times comments upon the gravity of the foregoing facts, "which," says The Times, "emanate from a trustworthy private source. If these are true, it indicates a powerful coalition against England."

CONCORD, N. H., March 27.—Hon. Alonzo P. Carpenter has been appointed chief justice of the New Hampshire supreme court.

An American Honored.

LONDON, March 27.—George Henry Boughton, the distinguished American artist, has been elected a Royal Academician.

AFRICAN NATIVES REVOLT.

Matabele Rebel Against English Rule and Massacre Whites.

CAPE TOWN, March 27.—The Matabele of the Insizwa and Filabusi districts have revolted and massacred the white settlers, including Commissary Bentley. The fugitive whites are flocking to Bulawayo and Gwelo for protection. A detachment of 75 volunteers, with a Maxim gun, have been dispatched against the natives.

The Matabele towns are preparing their defenses and enrolling volunteers. An additional force will be sent from Bulawayo to Insizwa and Gwelo. The Indians arrested at Zlonis arrived at Bulawayo at noon and reported that his farm had been raided and the cattle looted. He thinks that strong and prompt measures will quell the revolt.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA REBEL.

Vote Against Using Egyptian Money For the Nile Expedition.

LONDON, March 27.—A special dispatch from Cairo says that the French and Russian members of the Egyptian debt commission left the meeting after protesting against the use of the reserve fund for the purposes of the British-Egyptian expedition up the Nile. The English, German, Italian and Austrian members of the commission voted to advance the money required. The Russian and French members voted against the proposition.

Sir George Curzon, of the foreign office, in the house of commons, said a majority vote was all that was needed.

Tried to Lynch a Preacher.

FRESNO, Cal., March 27.—An attempt has been made to lynch Johnston, the minister who a few nights ago charged from the pulpit that two-thirds of the girls of Fresno were ruined before they arrived at the age of 14. Officers rescued him from an angry mob and he is now under the protection of the sheriff.

Boy Chained For Two Years.

LOUISVILLE, March 27.—Eleven-year-old Elbert Hendren of Jeffersontown has come into the city with a chain two feet long attached to his ankle. He was taken to a hardware store and the chain removed. He says that for two years his father, William Hendren, has had him chained to a log.

Military Medal For Sewell.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

A Bill For the Sale of All Public Works.

GAME MEASURES PASS FINALLY.

Appropriation Bill Passes the House. Joint Resolution For a Committee to Investigate the Feasibility of Selling Portions of the Canal System.

COLUMBUS, March 27.—A bill has been introduced in the senate to provide for the abandonment and sale of the public works of Ohio.

One was also introduced to repeal section 8437 so as to eliminate repealing acts from the statutes.

Bills were passed in the senate as follows:

Providing that innkeepers shall not be obliged to receive from guests for deposit property exceeding $500 in value and shall not be liable for property exceeding that amount in value, except by agreement in writing.

House bill providing that no person shall kill quail, ruffed grouse, or Mongolian, English, Russian or ring-necked pheasants for transportation outside of the state or for sale in the markets of the state.

Providing that complaint against a judge as prejudicial must be filed ten days before the hearing of the case.

House bill making an open season for hunting game between Nov. 10 and Dec. 15 and Sept. 1 and Dec. 15.

A bill was passed in the house making an appropriation for the year ending Feb. 15, 1897, amounting to $2,735,226.

A joint resolution by Mr. Aldrich was passed providing for the appointment of a joint committee, to report April 10, 1896, on the advisability of selling some portions or all of the canal system of the state.

Adopted.

Miss Stevenson's Coming Marriage.

OXFORD, O., March 27.—The report of the approaching marriage of Miss Julia Stevenson, daughter of Vice President Adlai Stevenson, and Rev. Martin Hardin, son of Colonel Wat P. Hardin of Kentucky has been confirmed in every particular except as to date. It is not positively asserted by those who know that the wedding will take place in June. They are reticent about the matter and content themselves with saying that it will be held in the near future.

Accused of Bigamy.

TOLEDO, March 27.—Thomas E. Whalen, alias Hanley, is in jail here charged with bigamy. It is alleged that he married Miss Susie McEvoy in Rochester, N. Y., April 18, 1881, and that on April 29, 1893, he married Miss Hattie M. Norman of Sandusky, O. Hanley denies the first marriage.

A Woman Hangs Herself.

CLEVELAND, March 27.—Maggie Weber, the wife of a saloonkeeper, arrested for drunkenness, has hung herself in a cell at the Central police station. She is the third woman prisoner who has hung herself in the station in six months.

Mrs. Wm. Green, on Parole, Has Skipped.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 27.—Mrs. William Green, who was out of the Ohio penitentiary on parole, where she was sentenced to 20 years for poisoning her husband, left the city recently, leaving quite a number of unpaid bills.

Alleged Counterfeiter Arrested.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—Marshall Gaddis of New Castle, Ind., in connection with local officers, has arrested Charles Williams on the charge of making counterfeit money.

Dr. Winders Elected.

COLUMBUS, March 27.—After taking three ballots the state board of medical examiners selected Dr. Frank Winders of Findlay as permanent secretary.

Asworkers on a Strike.

CLEVELAND, March 27.—Seventy-eight employees of the King Ax company are out on strike because of a reduction of 15 per cent in wages.

RAILWAY UNIONS TO COMBINE.

An Important Meeting of Railroaders in Erie.

ERIE, Pa., March 27.—A big meeting of union railroad employees is in session in this city. Fully 300 delegates are in the city, among them being P. H. Morrisey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; F. P. Sargent, grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and E. E. Clarke, grand master of the Order of Railroad Conductors.

It is stated the question of federation of the orders for purposes of mutual protection has occupied the entire time of the delegates. Grand Master Sargent said that there was no doubt an arrangement to that end would be effected at the present meeting.

Dozen Wounded in a Fight.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., March 27.—As a result of a free-for-all fight across the line in Franklin county, in which knives and pistols were used, nearly a dozen men were wounded. Henry Wilson and Samuel Templeton were rivals for the same girl, and this led to the fight.

Interfering With Clara Barton.

CONANTON, March 27.—The council of ministers has decided that Miss Clara Barton can only work in conjunction with the local Turkish commissions in the distribution of relief, and can only use their lists of destitute Armenians.

Bishop Andrews Shies a Bomb.

WICHITA, Kan., March 27.—At the Southwest Kansas Methodist Episcopal conference Bishop Andrews has created a sensation by declaring that a minister should not meddle with the temperance question.

Greater New York Bill Passed.

ALBANY, March 27.—The greater New York bill has passed the assembly by a vote of yeas, 91; nays, 57.

SHE CLAIMS MILLIONS.

A Wife of Davis, the Dead Montana Millionaire, Bobs Up.

BUTTE, Mont., March 27.—Mrs. Huldah Queen Davis, otherwise known as Huldah Snell, of Kern county, Cal., has filed a petition asking for the revocation of the old will and laying claim to an estate of many millions, alleging that she is the surviving wife of the dead millionaire. Davis was not known to have been married.

She alleges that she was married to Davis Aug. 15, 1842, in Carroll county, Ark., and was his lawful wife until his death in Butte, March 14, 1890. Two children were born to them, she says. One May Isabelle, now Mrs. Isabelle Marrow of Fresno, Cal., and the other, Laura Annie Calhoun, living in San Francisco. After their marriage, Davis went to California and his wife heard he was dead and married again. Later she moved to California and met him again. Mrs. Calhoun, one of the daughters, is the mother of Eleanor Calhoun, the actress, now in Paris.

CONCESSIONS TO CATHOLICS.

The Trouble in Manitoba Likely to Be Settled.

OTTAWA, March 27.—The latest information from Winnipeg is that the province of Manitoba will consent to giving Roman Catholics the same privileges as they now have in Nova Scotia, it being hinted that this would be satisfactory to the Dominion government.

This would permit of some arrangements as to religious teaching in the common schools, outside of schoolhouse, and as regards teachers and text books. In Winnipeg even more liberal arrangements might be given the Catholics. The only difficulty in the way of this settlement is that Quebec insists on the remedial bills.

GOV. ALTGELD INDICTED.

He and Others Accused of Violating a Flag Display Law.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 27.—Governor John P. Altgeld and the entire board of trustees of the University of Illinois have been indicted by the Champaign county grand jury for alleged neglect or refusal to comply with the law requiring that the American flag be displayed over the university buildings.

The flag has been displayed from the flagpole in front of the military hall, but not from the separate buildings.

Fought in a Church Yard.

MACON, Ga., March 27.—In Jones county, near here, members of an old feud, met in Coney Creek Church grounds, where revival services are being held. The fight that ensued for 15 minutes was waged with the bitterest antagonism. All were wounded, and App Maynard and Wall and Jack, and son will die as the result. The men are all prominent young farmers.

An Ohio Lady Injured.

MACON, Ga., March 27.—On the south-bound vestibule train on the Southern railroad a mail clerk threw out a bag which struck a switch, breaking it, at Eastman, and opened the siding. The train ran into the sidetrack and collided with empty box cars. Four people were injured, among them Miss Edith Miller of Warren, O., arm bruised badly.

Benjamin Franklin's Will Fulfilled.

BOSTON, March 27.—The will of Benjamin Franklin, which was probated about 100 years ago in Philadelphia, has been allowed in the probate court of Suffolk county. This step was taken in view of the trial of the question of the disposition of certain acts of city in the disposition of the Franklin fund.

HOUSE HAD TO YIELD.

The Conferrees Accept Senate Cuban Resolutions.

HALE THREATENED TO KILL THEM

If They Came Up Again in the Senate. They Will Now Be Considered Alone by the House—The Latest News of Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—After a session with the senate conference committee on the Cuban question, of less than half an hour's duration, the house conferrees agreed to accept the senate resolutions. The senate resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, By the senate (the house of representatives concurring) that in the opinion of congress a condition of public war exists between the government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba; and that the United States of America should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States.

Resolved, That the friendly offices of the United States shall be offered by the president to the Spanish government for the recognition of the independence of Cuba.

The house conferrees were reluctant to relinquish their resolutions prepared by their committee, but the plain alternative was presented to them of the senate resolutions or no resolutions. They were informed by the senate conferrees that the only course by which resolutions could be agreed upon by both houses was one which would shut off the senate from more debate. They were told that Senator Hale had served notice that if the question was brought forward again in the senate it would be debated to the end of the session, if necessary, by the opponents of recognition to the insurgents. The senate conferrees also said that they believed filibustering tactics would be resorted to in the senate to suppress action if any opportunity for their exercise was given.

These representations prevailed upon the representatives of the house to accept the senate declaration. The first section of the resolution was acceptable to them from the first, but the second, of which Senator Cameron is the author, seemed to them entirely impracticable of execution.

Under the arrangement reached the senate conferrees will report the agreement to the senate, and the question will be closed, so far as concerns that body. The house conferrees will report to the house a recommendation that it accept the senate resolutions, and the house will vote upon the ratification of the report.

TO PREVENT GOLD EXPORT.

The United States Treasury Raises the Price of Gold Bars.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The treasury department has instructed the New York sub-treasury to raise the premium on gold bars from 1-16 to 3-16 of one per cent. The department's purpose in the issuance of this order is to do what can be done legitimately to prevent future export of gold. The order has a triple purpose. First, it will tend to raise the price at which gold can be exported profitably, the price of exchange now being dangerously near the export point; second, it is regarded as good policy to get rid of coin instead of bars, because the former frequently have lost weight through abrasion, and third, it is intended to meet the action of the Bank of England has recently taken raising the price of gold bars to 77s 10d and thus practically lowering the rate of exchange at which gold can be shipped from the United States to Great Britain to about $4.88 1/2 or $4.88 3/4. Treasury officials admit the issuance of the order, but will not talk further concerning it.

AUTHORIZING NEW WAR SHIPS.

The Naval Appropriation Bill Passed by the House.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The naval appropriation bill has been passed by the house without substantial amendments. An effort was made by the advocates of a larger increase of the navy than was authorized by the bill to increase the number of battleships from four to six. This increase was supported on the floor by Messrs. Hanley (Rep., Ind.), Cummings (Dem., N. Y.), and Johnson (Rep., Cal.), and opposed by Messrs. Boutelle, chairman of the committee, Hulick (Rep., O.), and Robinson (Rep., Pa.).

The house, by a large majority, stood by the recommendation of the committee, the proposition for six battleships getting but 32 yeas against 134. Various other amendments were offered, but all failed. The bill as passed carries $31,613,034, and authorizes the construction of four battleships and 15 torpedo-boats, the total cost of which will be in the neighborhood of $35,000,000.

FOR A LABOR COMMISSION.

The Bill Reported Favorably to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Senator Perkins, from the committee on education and labor, has presented a favorable report on the bill authorizing the appointment of a non-partisan commission on labor, agriculture and capital.

The committee amended the bill so as to provide that the commission shall consist of five members in the interest of labor to be designated one from each of five labor organizations; five in the interest of agriculture, three of whom shall be designated by the Farmers' Alliance and two by the National Grange and five in the interest of capital, to be selected from among manufacturers and those representing other business pursuits.

The Senate Session.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The senate spent most of the day on the legislative appropriation bill, but did not complete it owing to Mr. Sherman's motion to strike out the proposition for the change from fees to salaries for United States district attorneys and marshals.

The attaches of the fire station are smoking fine cigars today, the gift of a candidate for official favor.

Traveling Auditor A. K. Burroughs of the Pennsylvania company, was in the city today auditing the books of the freight depot.

Superintendent Sabor went to Homeworth this morning to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, which occurs there today.

Business in the justice's courts is very quiet nowadays, the amount of litigation being considerably less than it has been at times.

A dog that was poisoned was found lying dead on Sixth street yesterday afternoon. Dog poisoning is getting to be an every day occurrence nowadays.

Engineer George is at work on Pennsylvania avenue in the East End today surveying that street for the proposed improvement by paving the sidewalks, which are soon to be laid.

The river rose three feet since yesterday, and there is an excellent boating stage of water now. The Virginia is due up from Cincinnati today. The packets lately have all had good trips.

James Kelly, a horse dealer from Jefferson county, was in the city yesterday trying to purchase horse-flesh. He did not succeed in buying any animals, as the prices asked for them he thought was too high.

Ted Woolcraft, of Minerva street, considers himself unfortunate. He purchased three fine game chickens from Judge Patterson, of Youngstown, a few days since, and yesterday a favorite dog of his killed them all.

At the county primaries held tomorrow, none but known Republicans will be allowed to vote. The central committee request that all who have a right to vote will lend their assistance in enforcing the above rule. Although the base ball season has not commenced yet, admirers of the national game are picking out their favorite clubs for this year. One enthusiast was willing to back his choice for the pennant with a good sum of money.

The clerk's union will meet in regular monthly session tonight and initiate several new candidates for membership. Action will also be taken in regard to voting on the proposed changing of the date of holding the national convention.

William Green, the local Peter Jackson, seems destined to live in duance vile for an unlimited space of time. His employer, John Rineheart, is willing to put up $3 for his release, but this sum is inadequate to secure the pugilistic Green's release.

The McKinley club received a fine steel engraving of their namesake yesterday, and have it on exhibition at their rooms. The portrait is the latest likeness of McKinley, and is presented to his admirers here by the ex-governor in token of his esteem for them.

The west part of the corner lot owned by Ben R. Little, in the Diamond, has been leased by Matthew Anderson and a two story block will be erected. The building will be frame and contain two rooms downstairs and three upstairs. It is intended to use the building for a drug store.

Agent Thomas, of the freight depot, says that the railroad company have great difficulty in securing clerks. Previous to the panic of '94 there were an unlimited number of young men who were ready to step into every vacancy that might occur, but since that period they have embarked in other business, and as a consequence clerks are now hard to secure.

The progress of work on the construction of the bridge piers is retarded by many unforeseen difficulties that have occurred. Last night a barge of sand broke loose from its fastenings on the Virginia shore, and the rise in the river caused the barge to swerve against the derrick on the shore, and knocked it down. This is the fourth time that an accident of this kind has occurred.

The Elk met last night and elected the following officers for the coming year. John W. Hohman, exalted ruler; Henry Joseph, esteemed leading knight; George Phillips, esteemed loyal knight; G. L. S. Brock, esteemed lecturing knight; James Hilbert, secretary; E. J. Owen, treasurer; G. Y. Travis, trustee; F. Knowles, tiler; W. E. Wells was elected as a representative to the grand lodge.

HOME CANDIDATE.

Mr. J. N. Smith Should Win Out as Commissioner.

He should be the man for whom Republicans will vote tomorrow. He should be the candidate of his party. He is a clean man, with a splendid record in this city of East Liverpool. He has been here from his infancy, and identified with the best interests thereof, from young manhood to present date. It has been understood for the past two years, in Republican circles in East Liverpool, that he was to be the candidate to win out with, and that impression still holds good in the breasts of a large force of staunch Republicans, who desire that we shall have a home candidate win out as commissioner of the county. J. N. Smith's record is right among the workmen of the city, the establishment with which he is connected, in contract work, employing union workmen and paying union wages. He is fully qualified to attend to the duties devolving upon the official who aspires to the office of commissioner, and the needs of the county in this particular, will receive careful and intelligent consideration at his hands. Taking these features into consideration, we respectfully urge our friends and acquaintances to cast their ballots for commissioner for J. N. Smith, of East Liverpool. MANY VOTERS.

A. H. Clark is our man.

READ THIS, VOTERS.

It speaks Good Words For a Popular Candidate.

The following communication has been handed to the News Review for publication. It certainly speaks well for the man to whom it refers.

LEETONIA, March 24, 1896.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—We, the undersigned, employees of the Leetonia china works, heartily endorse Dr. J. I. McMillan, of this city, as reliable, and competent to fill the position of clerk of courts of Columbiana county, and hope and trust all labor voters will heartily support him for this office, as he has always been a true friend of ours since we came to Leetonia. BRICE'S GREATEST PLAY.

The Story of His Manipulation of the Nickel Plate Road.

Brice's greatest play was building the Nickel Plate. He put in every dollar he could get, and there came a time when he had to sell. He went to Vanderbilt, whose road the Nickel Plate paralleled. Vanderbilt would not buy the Nickel Plate. He said he could afford to wait the first mortgage foreclosure and buy it from the sheriff. "If you don't buy it, Jay Gould will," said Brice. "Oh, no, he won't," said Vanderbilt. Brice then went to Gould. He knew that he did not want the Nickel Plate, but he had a beautiful scheme to propose. He knew Vanderbilt would buy the road before he would allow Gould to get in. Brice thereupon told Gould that if he would sit silent and not contradict, neither affirm nor deny, any newspaper articles to the effect that he was going to buy the Nickel Plate, and after this clamlike silence had continued for a week, if he would then ride slowly over the Nickel Plate in an observation car, Vanderbilt would buy the road, and he would give Gould $500,000.

It struck Gould that the whole thing would be a majestic joke on Vanderbilt. The papers said that Gould was going to buy the Nickel Plate. Gould, when questioned, looked wise. At the end of a week he meandered, snaillike, over the Nickel Plate in the rear end of an observation car and had all the air of a man who was looking at a piece of property. Stories were wired about Gould's trip from every water tank and way station along the line, and, before Gould had reached Chicago, Vanderbilt, in a fit of hysterics, wired Brice that he would take the Nickel Plate. He did so, and Brice was saved.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A SOCIETY ITEM.

A Striking Object Lesson in the Ethics of Nomenclature.

It was at the Emerald ball, and the young society reporter sharpened her wits and her pencils, that full and satisfactory description of each costume might be presented. Surrounding her were those most desirous of seeing their names and gowns in print, and in the crowd stood a shopgirl, gowned in flimsy pink cheesecloth of indescribable cut.

When her turn came for inspection, it was with a hopeless eye that the reporter surveyed the toilet. The artful question, however, was asked, as usual: "And your name and gown?"

"Miss Matilda Jenkins, attired in pink crepon and diamonds," was the studied and prompt reply.

"Pink crepon," wrote the newspaper woman, delighted with the new and elegant name for cheesecloth, but her pencil refused to add "and diamonds" until her quick eyes had discovered on the girl's collar a tiny rhinestone as big as a pinhead. Then "and diamonds" went down in the notebook as proudly as if announcing tiaras and stomachers of purest luster.

The next day all the girls behind a notion counter exclaimed enviously over a well worn newspaper clipping which read, "Miss Matilda Jenkins, attired in pink crepon and diamonds," and when the society reporter glanced over the printed words she felt never a pang as to the accuracy of the information she had given to the public.—New York Times.

"Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Will Leave Tonight.

The Rover football team leave tonight for Cleveland to contest with the West Side Athletics, of that city, on Saturday.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Lightning Hot Drops—What a Funny Name! Very True, but it Kills All Pain. Sold Everywhere. Every Day Without Relief, There is No Pay.

HOME CANDIDATE.

Mr. J. N. Smith Should Win Out as Commissioner.

He should be the man for whom Republicans will vote tomorrow. He should be the candidate of his party. He is a clean man, with a splendid record in this city of East Liverpool. He has been here from his infancy, and identified with the best interests thereof, from young manhood to present date. It has been understood for the past two years, in Republican circles in East Liverpool, that he was to be the candidate to win out with, and that impression still holds good in the breasts of a large force of staunch Republicans, who desire that we shall have a home candidate win out as commissioner of the county. J. N. Smith's record is right among the workingmen of the city, the establishment with which he is connected, in contract work, employing union workmen and paying union wages. He is fully qualified to attend to the duties devolving upon the official who aspires to the office of commissioner, and the needs of the county. In this particular, will receive careful and intelligent consideration at his hands. Taking these features into consideration, we respectfully urge our friends and acquaintances to cast their ballots for commissioner for J. N. Smith, of East Liverpool.

BRICE'S GREATEST PLAY.

The Story of His Manipulation of the Nickel Plate Road.

Brice's greatest play was building the Nickel Plate. He put in every dollar he could get, and there came a time when he had to sell. He went to Vanderbilt, whose road the Nickel Plate paralleled. Vanderbilt would not buy the Nickel Plate. He said he could afford to wait the first mortgage foreclosure and buy it from the sheriff. "If you don't buy it, Jay Gould will," said Brice. "Oh, no, he won't," said Vanderbilt. Brice then went to Gould. He knew that he did not want the Nickel Plate, but he had a beautiful scheme to propose. He knew Vanderbilt would buy the road before he would allow Gould to get in. Brice thereupon told Gould that if he would sit silent and not contradict, neither affirm nor deny, any newspaper articles to the effect that he was going to buy the Nickel Plate, and after this clamlike silence had continued for a week, if he would then ride slowly over the Nickel Plate in an observation car, Vanderbilt would buy the road, and he would give Gould $500,000.

It struck Gould that the whole thing would be a majestic joke on Vanderbilt. The papers said that Gould was going to buy the Nickel Plate. Gould, when questioned, looked wise. At the end of a week he meandered, snaillike, over the Nickel Plate in the rear end of an observation car and had all the air of a man who was looking at a piece of property. Stories were wired about Gould's trip from every water tank and way station along the line, and, before Gould had reached Chicago, Vanderbilt, in a fit of hysterics, wired Brice that he would take the Nickel Plate. He did so, and Brice was saved.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A SOCIETY ITEM.

A Striking Object Lesson in the Ethics of Nomenclature.

It was at the Emerald ball, and the young society reporter sharpened her wits and her pencils, that full and satisfactory description of each costume might be presented. Surrounding her were those most desirous of seeing their names and gowns in print, and in the crowd stood a shopgirl, gowned in flimsy pink cheesecloth of indescribable cut.

When her turn came for inspection, it was with a hopeless eye that the reporter surveyed the toilet. The artful question, however, was asked, as usual: "And your name and gown?"

"Miss Matilda Jenkins, attired in pink crepon and diamonds," was the studied and prompt reply.

"Pink crepon," wrote the newspaper woman, delighted with the new and elegant name for cheesecloth, but her pencil refused to add "and diamonds" until her quick eyes had discovered on the girl's collar a tiny rhinestone as big as a pinhead. Then "and diamonds" went down in the notebook as proudly as if announcing tiaras and stomachers of purest luster.

The next day all the girls behind a notion counter exclaimed enviously over a well worn newspaper clipping which read, "Miss Matilda Jenkins, attired in pink crepon and diamonds," and when the society reporter glanced over the printed words she felt never a pang as to the accuracy of the information she had given to the public.—New York Times.

"Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Will Leave Tonight.

The Rover football team leave tonight for Cleveland to contest with the West Side Athletics, of that city, on Saturday.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and he has since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.
